Site Location/Address _____

Assessor's Map No./Tax Lot\(s\) _____

17.312.030 Use and general restrictions:

1. One accessory dwelling unit is allowed per legal lot of record.
2. Accessory dwelling units cannot be used as vacation rentals.
3. Construction of an accessory dwelling unit must meet the minimum standards of the current state residential specialty code.
4. A separate address shall be assigned to the accessory dwelling unit and shall be clearly identified as required by state building code or the requirements of CBDC 17.312.040(1)(h).
5. A deed restriction must be recorded with the property advising future owners and lenders of use restrictions. The City will provide the deed restriction document to be recorded at the County Clerk's office. A copy of the recorded deed must be returned to the City.

Submittal must include responses to all of the following (attach additional documents/information if necessary):

(1) Please indicate how the proposed dwelling unit was or will be constructed:

- New Construction
- Established in existing finished space (based on original construction plans)
- Established in converted space (with prior land use/building permits)
- Established in converted space (without prior land use/building permits)
- Permanent tiny home attached to an approved foundation
- Certified factory-built home

(2) What is the location of the proposed accessory dwelling unit?

- Attached to the primary dwelling
- Detached from the primary dwelling
- Conversion of a level or floor

(3) What is the square footage of the accessory dwelling unit? Attached and detached accessory dwelling units shall not exceed 1,000 square feet of floor area, or 90-percent of the primary dwelling's total floor area, whichever is smaller. An accessory dwelling unit that results from the conversion of a level or floor (e.g., basement, attic, or second story) of the primary dwelling may occupy the entire level or floor, even if the floor area of the accessory dwelling unit would be more than 1,000 square feet (CBDC 17.312.040(1)(b)). Structures detached from the primary home on a residential lot may be converted to an accessory dwelling unit, if the structure meets the standards and requirements of the building code (as determined through the "Structural Permit" process) (CBDC 17.312.040(1)(a)).
